

Establishment of Takarazuka city

April 1st 1954

This Takarazuka city where we lives is originally Kawamo village and Miza village of the county Muko and Akura village, Kohama village, Maitani village and Yasuba village of the country Kawabe. In 1885, Kawamo village merged Yasube village and in 1889, Kawamo village, Miza village, Akura village, Kohama village and Maitani village became Kohama village of the country Kawabe. In 1951, Kohama village enforced the town plan and became Takarazuka town. In 1954, Takarazuka city established with Ryogen village and Takarazuka town. After that, In 1955, Nagao village and Nishitani village were incorporated and Kounoike, Aramaki and Ogino were transferred from Takarazuka city to Itami city and became the current city area.

the first city hall
(old Ryougen village office)

the second city hall

the third city hall