

For High School Students with Foreign Roots

Boost your Japanese skills this winter!

Winter Break Study Session for Current and Prospective High School Students

Get your homework done ahead of time!

You did not go to junior high school in Japan but you want to go high school in here!

We are offering a winter intensive study session for high school students from international backgrounds!

Thursday, December 25 10:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Saturday, December 27 10:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Free to join

Target: Approximately 15~20 years old who want to study Japanese. Students who want to ask about the lessons that they didn't understand in class.

Night school: junior and senior high school students.

Students who don't want to attend daytime junior high school and want to go to a Japanese high school, etc.

What You'll Do :

High school students: Work on homework and improve your Japanese in small groups with supportive guidance.

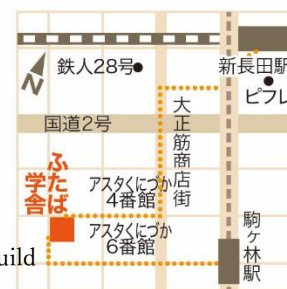

Students aiming to enter high school: Get ready for entrance exams by studying Japanese language and other subjects, and practice interviews to build confidence.

Place- Futaba International Plaza

T-6530042

7-1-18 Futabacho, Nagata Ward, Kobe City

Inside Futaba Campus TEL.078-747-0280

GoogleMap

For applications and inquiries,

Please contact Kobe foreigners Support Centre (KFC), NPO

←LINE TEL 078-612-2402 E-mail kfc@social-b.net

LINE and E-mail support is available in English, Vietnamese, Nepalese, Chinese, and other languages. School teachers and supporters can also make inquiries and applications.

This class is offered with support from Kobe City as part of its "Development and Demonstration Project for Japanese Language Education Programs for High School students".